Madison – Rep. Knodl (R-Germantown) issued the following statement regarding the verdict that was issued today in the Waukesha Christmas Parade trial.

“While our community continues to mourn those loved ones that were lost that day, this verdict hopefully brings the families a measure of justice. Thank you to the Waukesha County Justice system for a fair and well done process. Prayers of Peace to all those affected and prayers of continued healing to those still recovering from physical injury or trauma.
