Madison, WI. Rep. William Penterman (R-Columbus) has been named Chairman of the Assembly Committee on Labor and Integrated Employment for the 2023-2024 legislative session by Assembly Speaker Robin Vos.

“I am honored to be entrusted by my colleagues with this committee chairmanship,” said Rep. Penterman. “We have a full legislative session ahead of us with the opportunity to tackle many issues.”

Rep. Penterman’s other committee assignments are Vice Chairman of Housing and Real Estate, Education, Veterans and Military Affairs, Education, and Children and Families.

“I look forward to reviewing proposed legislation in these committees and strengthening Wisconsin’s laws to improve public policy for the people of Wisconsin and the 37th Assembly District.”

State Representative Penterman will begin his second term starting in January of 2023 serving Wisconsin’s 37th Assembly District, which includes portions of Dane, Columbia, Dodge and Jefferson Counties.
