Serving the people of the 37th Assembly District has been an honor. As a state representative, my greatest joy has come from meeting the hard-working men and women who call our area home.

Unfortunately, the Wisconsin Supreme Court has chosen to implement Governor Evers' partisan maps. These maps, which were drawn in secret in the 11th hour, tear the 37th Assembly District in half and move much of what had been in the 37th into the new 38th.

While Tony Evers tried to redistrict me out of the heart of my district, he will not succeed. If the US Supreme Court does not ultimately overturn the Evers maps, I am declaring my intention to run in the new 38th Assembly District, which comprises a majority of the current 37th Assembly District. I look forward to the opportunity to continue serving these areas.

I enjoy substitute teaching and getting to know the students at Watertown and Dodgeland

Middle and High Schools. My work will not end just because Tony Evers wishes to purge me from the Wisconsin State Legislature through a blatant Democrat gerrymander.

As a concerned Wisconsinite, veteran, and husband, I will continue to fight for my constituents.
