“I am pleased to be reappointed by Assembly Minority Leader Greta Neubauer for the new session as the ranking Democrat on the Assembly State Affairs Committee, and the Assembly Labor Committee. In addition, it will be good to return to my seats on the Assembly Veterans and Assembly Workforce Development Committees.

“My new appointment this session will be to the Assembly Regulatory Licensing Reform Committee, which deals with some very current issues of importance to the Wisconsin workforce.

“I look forward to an interesting and, I hope, productive session working with the majority party members on these committees.”
