MADISON, WI – Today, Representative Shelia Stubbs (D-Madison) joined Representative Samba Baldeh (D-Madison) and representatives from Dane County Human Services to celebrate the grand opening of Families Back To The Table Inc. On this, Representative Stubbs released the following statement:

“It was an honor to see the grand opening of Families Back To The Table Inc, and to celebrate this wonderful development. As the former Dane County Board of Supervisor of District #23, I ensured funding was allocated to Families Back to The Table Inc. in the County Budget. I want to thank Program Director Lisa Burrell for all of her hard work in making this organization a reality. This progress will make a real difference in the lives of our neighbors.”

“Families Back To The Table Inc. will empower families across Dane County, and help provide informational services to keep families together. Through direct intervention, Families Back To The Table will promote stability within families and transform lives within our community.”

“A strong community starts with strong families. By promoting constructive change with an emphasis on a family-driven approach, we will begin to see more families stay stronger, together.”

“I want to thank the Dane County Department of Human Services for partnering with Families Back To The Table, and for investing in proven programming. It was an honor to advocate for this organization while on the Dane County Board of Supervisors, and I look forward to seeing their progress make a real impact in
