Representative Lisa Subeck Elected Assembly Democratic Caucus Chair

MADISON – Today, State Representative Lisa Subeck (D-Madison) was elected Chair of the Assembly Democratic Caucus. She will succeed Representative Mark Spreitzer (D-Beloit) who is leaving the position to run for State Senate.

“Thank you to Rep. Spreitzer for his outstanding service as caucus chair. His leadership has been invaluable over the past six years,” said Rep. Subeck. “Rep. Spreitzer’s work for our caucus has laid the groundwork for success moving forward.”

Rep. Subeck has represented the 78th Assembly District since 2015 and has served as vice-chair of the Assembly Democratic Caucus since 2021. She will assume her position as Assembly Democratic Caucus Chair on Monday, March 21.

“Thank you to my Democratic colleagues for the trust they have placed in me. It is an honor to serve as our next Democratic Caucus Chair,” said Rep. Subeck. “I look forward to advancing our shared values and priorities as we grow our caucus and move into the next legislative session bigger and stronger and ready to continue our work for the people of Wisconsin.”
