MADISON - Following their inaugurations for the 2023-2024 biennium, Representatives Shelton and Snodgrass will be joined by a new staffer shared between their offices. Kenny will accompany Paige Anderson and Fawn George in supporting the offices of the 90th and 57th Assembly Districts respectively in Madison.

Kenny is excited to join Representatives Shelton and Snodgrass as their Legislative Assistant. Before transitioning to this new role, Kenny worked with the Democratic Party of Wisconsin during the 2022 Midterm Cycle. He received a Bachelor's degree in History and Political Science and a Master of Public Administration degree from the University of Pittsburgh. Kenny could talk endlessly about urban design, improv comedy, and Liverpool Football Club.

Representative Shelton stated, "We could not be more excited to bring Kenny into our team! His diverse background will bring a fresh perspective as we begin the new biennial session."

"Successful legislative offices depend on exceptional staff which is why we are so excited to bring Kenny on board to complete the team." Representative Snodgrass added.
