Will bring over a decade of grassroots leadership experience and focus on public safety & regulatory reform to Madison

MUKWONAGO, WI—Nik Rettinger, longtime grassroots leader in the Republican Party, has won the Republican Primary for the 83rd State Assembly District. Rettinger has over a decade of experience advancing the conservative movement in Southeast Wisconsin and is ready to take the fight to Madison to ensure our conservative principles and Constitutional liberties are defended.

Nik Rettinger stated the following Tuesday night, after his win:

"It is truly an honor to be able to continue this race on to November. I will not stop working for the people of the 83rd. Our team had a big win tonight, but we could not have done it without our volunteers, our support from members of the State Assembly and Senate, Governor Walker, Congressman Bryan Steil, and most importantly my wife Sidney. If you met me or a member of my team out on doors or at a local community event over the last few months, plan to see us again because we are using all of this momentum to help the entire Republican ticket win in November!"

The new 83rd Assembly District covers Waukesha, Walworth and Racine Counties and now includes the communities of Mukwonago, Eagle, East Troy, Troy Center, Vernon, Big Bend, western Muskego, and Waterford.
