Janesville, WI— Ann Roe is honored to receive the endorsement of AFL-CIO Wisconsin and SEIU. Ann is a strong supporter of workers' rights. When she is elected, she will fight for working families across Wisconsin's first Congressional District. Ann also welcomes the endorsements of Anthony Kennedy, Rollin Pizzala and Donald Trottier. Please see their statements below:

Anthony Kennedy, 10th District Alderperson in Kenosha

"I am honored to endorse Ann Roe for Congress. She will fight for quality education, increased access to healthcare, and better jobs for everyone in Wisconsin's first Congressional district."

Rollin Pizzala, 11th District Alderperson in Kenosha

"I am proud to endorse Ann Roe for Congress in Wisconsin's first Congressional district. There is so much at stake this election. We need someone like Ann in Washington fighting for what the people of this district deserve."

Donald Trottier, District 12 County Board Supervisor

"I am happy to endorse Ann Roe for Congress. Her experience as an educator, small business owner, and community leader make her the best choice for Wisconsin's first Congressional district."
