Madison, WI - The Wisconsin State Patrol report on the July 22nd three-vehicle accident involving Senator Janet Bewley has been released. Sen. Bewley wants to thank all the dedicated law enforcement and emergency medical personnel who helped in the aftermath of the accident. This has been a heartbreaking event for the community. Our thoughts and prayers continue to be focused on the individuals involved, their families and their loved ones. Out of respect for their privacy, our office will be not be commenting further at this time.
