MADISON– Senator Robert Cowles (R-Green Bay) released the following statement following Senator Alberta Darling’s (R-River Hills) announcement that she will retire from the state Senate effective December 1st:

“Senator Darling has provided steadfast leadership and unmatched expertise for our caucus, the legislative body, her district, and the entire state of Wisconsin for the several decades of service she provided in her role as Senator for the 8th District. Time and time again, she has proven herself to be worthy of the trust that her constituents have placed in her to represent their values and address their concerns. I’ve been proud to have the opportunity to serve with Alberta as a colleague and a friend. Her voice and presence will be missed in meetings, committee hearings, and session days, but her impact will continue to be felt. I wish her all the best in a well-earned retirement.”
