“Just like with their illegal ballot harvesting in the spring election, Racine is again breaking the law with its mobile voting van.

“Abraham Lincoln once said, ‘A law without enforcement is just a suggestion.’ It is clear that the city of Racine believes election laws are merely suggestions to be manipulated to advantage Democrats politically. They are not. Like all laws, the election laws must be enforced, or they don’t need to exist at all.

“I applaud WILL for filing this complaint, and call on the Wisconsin Election Commission to issue its ruling quickly. We cannot allow Racine to cheat in another election.”
