De Pere, Wis.: Current Young Professionals of the Greater Green Bay Chamber announced its Current Young Professionals Future 15 award winners for 2023, and St. Norbert College was well represented. Those honored include:

Cam Fuller, director of athletics

Jasmine Gordon, community engagement specialist/ Mulva Library

Jessica Adams Nelson, Campus education & prevention project manager

Sarah Olejniczak, Title IX and compliance coordinator

The awards recognize 15 area young professionals who are growing and excelling in their respective fields; are influencing the growth, prosperity and quality of life in Greater Green Bay; and are demonstrating the ability to positively impact the area in the future through their professional accomplishments and community involvement.

Current Young Professionals provides an opportunity for individuals to grow professionally and personally, develop meaningful relationships and shape the Greater Green Bay community.

Young Professional of the Year is selected from the pool of Future 15 recipients. The 2023 awards event is scheduled for Thursday, March 2, at the Radisson Hotel & Conference Center in Green Bay.
