JANESVILLE, WISCONSIN — Today, Congressman Bryan Steil's campaign announced that Steil raised over $620,000 into his campaign committees during the second quarter of 2022. The Steil for Wisconsin campaign reported over $1.9 million cash on hand with 116 days to go until the election, putting Steil in a strong position to secure reelection to Wisconsin's First Congressional District seat.

Congressman Bryan Steil (WI-01) issued the following statement:

"The momentum is on our side. Grassroots supporters are energized and working hard alongside my campaign to spread our message to voters across the district. I'm grateful for their efforts and thankful for the outpouring of support our campaign continues to receive. The failed policies of Joe Biden and Nancy Pelosi are clobbering families and workers. People are fed up with higher prices and crime in our communities. This November is our chance to put Wisconsin and America back on track."

In the second quarter of this year, Steil raised $563,299 into his campaign account, $46,900 into the Steil Victory Fund, and $25,000 into his leadership fund, which Steil uses to help elect conservatives across Wisconsin and the nation.
