Today Josh Kaul released his crime lab testing data and the failures are staggering.

“Josh Kaul campaigned on fixing the crime and is trying to bury his abysmal failure of mismanaging the crime lab. Kaul is playing politics with public safety by limiting the amount of evidence prosecutors and cops can submit to the lab in a failed effort to improve his testing turnaround times. Kaul is testing significantly less items than former AG Brad Schimel and is still taking longer to test many categories of key items in comparison to Schimel, including DNA. Wisconsin can't afford another 4 years of Kaul's failures.”
