WASHINGTON, DC – Today, Congressman Scott Fitzgerald (WI-05) honored candidates from Wisconsin's Fifth Congressional District who were recently nominated for appointment to the U.S. service academies.

“As a Member of Congress, it is my privilege to nominate exceptional individuals to attend our U.S. service academies to be molded into our nation's next generation of leaders, said Congressman Scott Fitzgerald. This year's class of nominees is nothing short of exceptional, having demonstrated their qualification through a rigorous review process. I am confident they will serve our country and represent the 5th District of Wisconsin with distinction.

I also want to recognize the board members who dedicated their time to review applicant materials and conduct interviews. The selection process could not have been possible without their generosity.”
