Washington, DC – Rep. Ron Kind released the following statement on joining President Joe Biden in Superior, Wisconsin today to highlight the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law:

“I’m thrilled to join the President in Wisconsin to discuss how the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law is delivering for our state. Thanks to this historic investment in our nation’s infrastructure we can finally get started on rebuilding Wisconsin and rebuilding America. From expanding broadband access to creating good-paying jobs to fixing our roads and bridges, the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law is making a difference in the lives of Wisconsinites.”

Rep. Kind voted for the Bipartisan Infrastructure Law on November 5, 2021 and the package was signed into law November 15, 2021. This legislation invests in our roads and bridges, access to broadband, water infrastructure, resilience, and more – all while creating jobs and growing our economy.
