WASHINGTON, DC – Today, Congressman Bryan Steil (WI-01) announced that he will be holding three listening sessions in Southeast Wisconsin next week.

The listening sessions are free and open to the people of Wisconsin's First Congressional District. Residents are encouraged to attend to discuss issues pending in Congress or to request assistance dealing with federal agencies. Individuals needing additional assistance or special accommodations should contact the Office of Congressman Steil at (608) 752-4050 in advance.

“Being available and accessible to residents in Southeast Wisconsin is a vital part of serving as your representative. I look forward to hearing directly from you about the issues facing our community, state, and country,” said Rep. Steil.

Members of the media planning to attend a listening session should RSVP by emailing, Grace White: Grace.White@mail.house.gov

There will be brief media availability following each listening session.
