WASHINGTON, D.C. – Following the University of Wisconsin NCAA Division I and University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire NCAA Division III women's volleyball teams winning national championships, Senator Tammy Baldwin introduced and passed resolutions in the Senate celebrating the victories.

“The women on both teams have shown great commitment and dedication, and make the great state of Wisconsin proud,” said Senator Tammy Baldwin. “It’s only right to honor their hard work, teamwork, and this tremendous accomplishment, Go Badgers and Go Blugolds!”

“Whereas the Badger women's volleyball team has brought great pride and honor to the University of Wisconsin and its alumni, loyal fans, and the State of Wisconsin: Now, therefore, be it Resolved, That the Senate – congratulates the University of Wisconsin on winning the 2021 National Collegiate Athletic Association Division I Women's Volleyball Championship,” the Senate resolution honoring the University of Wisconsin women's volleyball team read in part.

“Whereas the players and the staff of the Blugold women's volleyball team persevered through challenges presented by the COVID-19 pandemic; and... Now, therefore, be it Resolved, That the Senate - congratulates the University of Wisconsin - Eau Claire Blugolds on winning the 2021 National Collegiate Athletic Association Division III Women's Volleyball Championship," the Senate resolution honoring the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire women's volleyball team read in part.
