A special presentation of The Forum series by journalist and educator Dr. Jelani Cobb, scheduled for Thursday, Nov. 3, at the University of Wisconsin-Eau Claire has been canceled.

Organizers were informed today by the agency representing Cobb that next week's campus appearance has been canceled. Further information about any rescheduled date will be announced as available.

Cobb, a longtime staff writer for The New Yorker and dean of the Columbia Journalism School, is one of the nation's preeminent voices on the intersections of race, history, politics and culture in America.
