MADISON, Wis.—University of Wisconsin System interim President Michael J. Falbo announced today five finalists for the position of chancellor of UW-Madison, the System's flagship university with 47,000 students and 24,000 faculty and staff.

A Special Regent Committee selected the finalists from a list of candidates identified by a 21-member Search and Screen Committee led by UW System Regent Vice President Karen Walsh, chair, and Susan Hagness, Professor and Department Chair of Electrical and Computer Engineering, vice chair. The finalists will interview next week in Madison with the Special Regent Committee and Falbo along with other groups, including shared governance representatives, students, faculty, and deans. The finalists will also take part in a public conversation.

The finalists, listed in alphabetical order, are:

Ann E. Cudd

Provost and Senior Vice Chancellor and Professor of Philosophy, University of Pittsburgh
Pittsburgh, PA

Marie Lynn Miranda

Professor of Applied Computational Mathematics and Statistics and former Provost, University of Notre Dame
South Bend, IN

Jennifer L. Mnookin

Dean, School of Law, and Ralph and Shirley Shapiro Professor of Law, University of California, Los Angeles

Los Angeles, CA

Daniel A. Reed

Presidential Professor of Computational Science and former Provost, University of Utah

Salt Lake City, UT

John Karl Scholz

Provost and Nellie June Gray Professor of Economic Policy, University of Wisconsin-Madison

Madison, WI

After reviewing campus feedback, the Special Regent Committee, chaired by Regent President Edmund Manydeeds III and including Regents Amy Blumenfeld Bogost, Mike Jones, Tracey L. Klein, John W. Miller, and Walsh, will recommend a single successful candidate to the Board of Regents.
