PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WI – Republicans across the country are united to take back the House of Representatives and serve as a check on Joe Biden’s failed agenda. That path starts in Western Wisconsin.

3rd District Candidate Derrick Van Orden continues to outpace the field in fundraising, bringing in more than $800,000 during Q2, the third consecutive quarter Van Orden has outraised the entire Democrat field combined. Voters don’t want another rubber stamp for Joe Biden and Nancy Pelosi’s agenda, and that is reflected in the enthusiasm and energy behind Derrick’s candidacy.

Van Orden released the following statement after the fundraising announcement: Republicans are fired up to Fire Pelosi in November. We’re facing 40 year highs in inflation, families are having a hard time filling up the gas tank and the grocery cart on the same day, and the Democrats in this race will just be more of the same. They are running to be Joe Biden’s rubber stamp. I’m running to get things done for the people of Wisconsin. It’s time to send in the SEAL.
