PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WI – The NRA-PVF released their ratings for Wisconsin's 3rd District race, giving Derrick Van Orden an Aq rating while Brad Pfaff received an F. Aq is the highest possible rating for a candidate without a voting record, and Derrick Van Orden has shown that he will advocate tirelessly for law abiding gun owners.

“As a retired Navy SEAL, with multiple combat deployments, Derrick Van Orden has a long and unique appreciation for the freedoms enshrined in our constitution,” said Jason Ouimet, chairman of NRA-PVF. “His steadfast commitment to preserving our Second Amendment rights and Wisconsin’s rich hunting heritage makes Derrick the obvious choice for every NRA member and supporter in Wisconsin’s 3rd district.”

Derrick Van Orden released the following statement thanking the NRA for their endorsement

“Our Constitutional Rights are under attack by the left like no other time I can remember. They have targeted our Right to Keep and Bear Arms in particular and I will have no part of that. I took an oath to support and defend the Constitution and that is exactly what I plan on doing as your congressman.

I am so thankful for the NRA’s support and look forward to working with them to ensure these freedoms and our heritage as free Americans is never taken away by politicians.”
