PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WI – The Republican Jewish Coalition announced this morning their endorsements of 14 candidates in key races around the country, including Derrick Van Orden in Wisconsin's 3rd District as one of the only 4 challengers receiving an endorsement.

In the endorsement, RJC Executive Director Matt Brooks said “we need Republicans in Congress who will fight for America’s freedom, security, and prosperity, and who support our ally, Israel. The RJC PAC enthusiastically supports these GOP incumbents and challengers, who will help Republicans take back the House and Senate majorities and will bring much-needed sanity back to Capitol Hill.”

Derrick Van Orden released the following statement thanking the RJC for their support of his candidacy:

I am profoundly grateful to receive the endorsement from the Republican Jewish Coalition. Our constitutional rights have been under attack from the left for years and this simply must stop. Nancy Pelosi's Congress and Joe Biden's Administration have shamefully mismanaged our economy and made the world a more dangerous place through weak and feckless leadership. I fully support and will always stand with our incredible ally, Israel.
