PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WI – Wisconsinites continue to face challenges making ends meet as the Biden-Pelosi fueled inflation remains sky-high in the month of April. With prices 8.3% more expensive than last year across the board, including gas prices that have nearly doubled on average nationwide during the Biden Administration, Wisconsin families are feeling the impact of the Biden-Pelosi agenda on a daily basis.

Derrick Van Orden, Republican Candidate in Wisconsin's 3rd District, released the following statement on the continued Biden-Pelosi Inflation:

“As Mom’s are desperate to feed their children, the White House spokesperson laughs when asked who is working on fixing the baby formula shortage.

People cannot fill up their gas tank and grocery cart on the same day.

Inflation is crushing wages.

The Biden-Pelosi radical agenda has failed everyday Americans and it is time for new leadership in DC.

Send in the SEAL.”
