PRAIRIE DU CHIEN, WI – Following his trip to the southern border to see firsthand the disastrous impact of Joe Biden’s policies, Derrick Van Orden wrote about the impact of one year of Joe Biden’s presidency.

After a failed withdrawal from Afghanistan leaving behind an unknown number of Americans to their fate at the hands of the Taliban, skyrocketing inflation that is making it difficult for many Americans to buy gas and groceries on the same day, and terrible border policies that have led to self-inflicted humanitarian crises at our border, one thing is clear: Joe Biden’s presidency is hurting American families.

As Vice President Kamala Harris, the “Border Czar,” comes to Wisconsin this week, it’s especially poignant to take a look at the impact of the Biden-Harris Administration’s year of failure on the southern border.
