Derrick Van Orden visited Vernon County on Tuesday for the latest stops on his 19 County Tour.

Derrick visited local businesses in Vernon County including JR Manske Woodworking and the Falker Family Farm speaking with employees and owners about the importance for change in Washington DC. To close out the day, he stopped by the Viroqua VFW with the Vernon County Republican Party to encourage volunteers and supporters to get out the vote for the last two weeks of the campaign.

Derrick is committed to being a voice for everyone in the 3rd Congressional District. He will go to Washington and stand up for our manufacturers, our farmers, and every citizen of the 3rd District.

The next stop on the 19 County Tour? Richland and Sauk Counties!
