Derrick Van Orden continued his 19 County Tour of the 3rd District joining Senator Ron Johnson's bus tour on stops all across the 3rd.

On Tuesday, Derrick and Senator Johnson kicked off the day in Platteville, then headed to Derrick's hometown of Prairie Du Chien. They were joined by Republican Gubernatorial nominee Tim Michels at stops in Prairie Du Chien and Richland Center before heading to Viroqua, Sparta and La Crosse. To close off the day, Senator Johnson and Derrick spoke with supporters in Black River Falls.

On Wednesday, Congressman Tom Tiffany joined the tour for stops in the northern part of the district. To start, they stopped in Chippewa Falls before heading to Menomonie and River Falls. From there, Derrick stopped Ellsworth to see the folks at Quinn Motors, Chic Sweets in Lake Hallie, and to check in with Sheriff Nancy Hove.

The 19 County Tour continues next with stops in Eau Claire and Chippewa Counties.
