“As a conservative, I believe in upholding the constitution. That’s why I won’t take the impossible step to overturn the 2020 election. My opponent is singularly focused on winning this primary so he can overturn the 2020 election.

“This endorsement changes nothing because the only endorsements that matter are the ones that come from the voters in Racine County. I will continue to knock on doors and discuss the issues they care about. Instead of focusing on the past, they are focused on the future goals of improving election integrity, fighting inflation by reducing our tax burden and supporting police who will enforce tough-on-crime policies.”
