(WAUKESHA, WI) – Polls open for the Spring 2022 Primary Election on Tuesday, Feb. 15, at 7 a.m. and close at 8 p.m. Results will begin coming in shortly afterward. Results can be viewed at this link online as they come in, where they'll be updated every 10 minutes.

It is important to remember that due to some municipalities utilizing Central Count absentee ballot processing certain races may display “100% complete,” online yet are not actually finished. The municipalities using Central Count this Tuesday are the Cities of New Berlin and Brookfield.

To stay in communication with the Waukesha County Clerk's Office during Election Day and to confirm whether results are fully in for a particular election, members of the media should text 262-666-3335. Please introduce yourself and your publication when first reaching out.

Candidates who move past the Feb. 15 primary will continue to the April 5 Spring Election.
