Stephanie Bloomingdale, President of the Wisconsin AFL-CIO, released the following statement announcing the labor federation's endorsement of Mandela Barnes for U.S. Senate:

"Mandela Barnes grew up in a proud union household. He understands the role unions play in building strong communities and providing families with opportunities to get ahead. As Wisconsin's next U.S. Senator, Mandela will fight for policies that create good jobs, boost American manufacturing, and invest in Wisconsin's working people. The Wisconsin State AFL-CIO is proud to support Mandela Barnes for U.S. Senate."
