The News: The Wisconsin Institute for Law & Liberty (WILL) added Cory Brewer, Associate Counsel, to expand WILL's focus and legal services related to K-12 education in Wisconsin. She joins a growing legal and policy team at WILL that is dedicated to empowering parents and expanding education options.

The Quote: WILL Deputy Counsel, Cory Brewer, said, "I am thrilled to join the team at WILL. I'm looking forward to assisting the growing movement in Wisconsin to empower parents, reform education, and provide children in every corner of our state with high-quality education options."

Cory Brewer is Associate Counsel at WILL. She focuses on legal and policy issues related to K-12 education in Wisconsin.

Before joining WILL, Cory worked in private practice as a civil litigation attorney. During that time, she represented insurance companies and their insureds in a wide variety of practice areas, including medical malpractice, licensing board inquiries, automobile liability and general negligence litigation.

Cory is a graduate of the University of Wisconsin Law School, and she received a Bachelor of Arts magna cum laude from Lawrence University, where she was a two-sport collegiate athlete. She lives in Oak Creek with her husband and daughters.
