The Wisconsin AFL-CIO has endorsed Judge Lori Kornblum for election to the Wisconsin Court of Appeals, District 2.

“For working people, the choice in the race for the Wisconsin Court of Appeals District 2 is crystal clear,” said Stephanie Bloomingdale, President of the Wisconsin AFL-CIO. “Judge Kornblum shares our union values of justice and fairness. Judge Kornblum knows that Wisconsin is stronger when the rights of the people are equally protected under the law. Her opponent Maria Lazar defended Act 10, the centerpiece of former Governor Scott Walker’s anti-union agenda.”

“It is an honor to earn the endorsement of the hard working men and women of the Wisconsin AFL-CIO,” said Judge Kornblum. “For more than 60 years, the Wisconsin AFL-CIO has been a leading voice for workers and working families. Here in Wisconsin, the Wisconsin AFL-CIO is helping build stronger, more equitable communities. I look forward to having the Wisconsin AFL-CIO’s support in this critically important election.”
