Madison – In yesterday’s fall partisan primary election, Wisconsin Family Action PAC-endorsed candidates in contested races did well.

Attorney General

Eric Toney

State Senate

Devin LeMahieu (SD 9)

Rachael Cabral-Guevara (SD 19)

Cory Tomczyk (SD 29)

State Assembly

Joy Goeben (AD 5)

Jerry O’Connor (AD 52)

Ty Bodden (AD 59)

Karen Hurd (AD 68)

Nik Rettinger (AD 83)

Bob Donovan (AD 84)

Julaine Appling, WFA PAC director, issued the following statement.

“We congratulate these candidates on their victories yesterday. Each of them ran hard and smart campaigns, and a number of them were in very close races with multiple candidates. We look forward to their continued hard work over the next 90 days so they can win again in November. These men and women share our values and will serve their constituents and the entire state well as they stand strong on and actually work to promote the foundational issues of marriage and family, the sanctity of life, religious freedom, economic prosperity, and educational freedom.

“We urge voters to support these candidates in every way as we head to the November 8 general election.”
