[Seymour, Wis.] — The Wisconsin Firearm Owners Association endorsed Rebecca Kleefisch for Wisconsin governor on Tuesday. Wisconsin Firearm Owners has been an affiliated state association of the National Rifle Association since 1963.

“We have worked with Rebecca for several years, and she has always been a staunch advocate for the 2nd Amendment and the right to self defense,” said Rob Kovach, president of the Wisconsin Firearm Owners Association. “Early in her campaign, she and her staff reached out to us with her platform that includes constitutional carry and several pro-2nd Amendment bills that were vetoed by Tony Evers this year. It’s very important to Wisconsin Firearm Owners that Rebecca Kleefisch, a trustworthy, conservative ally, is elected governor this November.”
