

Wisconsin Right to Life: Releases fourth round of endorsements for 2022 fall primary

Posted on Thursday, May 19, 2022

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

The Wisconsin Right to Life Political Action Committee (PAC) is pleased to announce a fourth round of endorsements of candidates who have shown a commitment to upholding pro-life principals, and will be strong defenders of life if elected:

Tim Michels for Governor
Roger Roth for Lieutenant Governor
Amy Loudenbeck for Secretary of State
Brian Westrate for 23rd Senate District
Romaine Quinn for 25th Senate District
Robert Relph for 27th Senate District
Brent Jacobson for 29th Senate District
Jerry O'Connor for 52nd Assembly District

Gracie Skogman, WRTL legislative/PAC director stated, "With the Supreme Court expected to release a decision determining the future of Roe, it is critical now more than ever to defend the lives of both preborn babies and mothers in Wisconsin. It is vital to elect life-affirming leadership to all levels of governance in Wisconsin."

Please note that the Wisconsin Right to Life PAC considers endorsements on an ongoing basis, and more endorsement announcements may be made in the coming weeks. For a full list of endorsed candidates, visit wrtl.org/endorsed.