

Wisconsin Truth PAC ad calls Barnes 'oblivious' to inflation

Posted on Tuesday, Oct 11, 2022

Wisconsin Truth PAC, which has been funded largely by GOP megadonors Diane Hendricks and Elizabeth Uihlein, is out with a new TV ad calling Barnes "oblivious" to inflation, evaporating retirement savings and crashing home values.

It began airing Thursday, according to AdImpact.

The narrator says Barnes supported a massive tax increase on the middle class and an army of IRS agents "to get every penny." The narrator says Barnes also supports President Biden's student loan forgiveness plan that costs every taxpayer $2,000.

"Can you afford Mandela Barnes?" the narrator asks.
