Earlier this week, Republican candidate for Governor Tim Michels made the shocking promise that “Republicans will never lose another election in Wisconsin after I’m elected governor.”

Further down the Republican ticket, GOP AG nominee Eric Toney has been working overtime to distance himself from his past support for Mike Gableman’s waste of taxpayer money on a partisan sham investigation of the 2020 election.

Eric Toney must answer — does he agree with Tim Michels?

If elected, will Eric Toney use the office of the Attorney General to help Tim Michels keep his radical promise?

“Tim Michels’ radical promise makes clear that democracy is on the ballot on November 8th,” said Democratic Party of Wisconsin spokesperson Marnie O’Malley. “AG Josh Kaul has stood up time and again to defend the will of the voters. Wisconsinites deserve answers from Eric Toney: does he agree with Tim Michels? If elected, will Eric Toney use his office to ensure Republicans never lose another election?”
