

WisDems webinar with U.S. Sen. Baldwin on manufacturing jobs in Oshkosh

Posted on Wednesday, Feb 9, 2022

Senator Tammy Baldwin, Oshkosh UAW Local 578 President and Chief Steward To Discuss Positive Impacts Of Bringing More Than 1,000 Manufacturing Jobs to Oshkosh

Tomorrow, Senator Tammy Baldwin, UAW Local 578 President Bob Lynk, and Chief Steward Timothy Jacobson, will hold a virtual press call to discuss the positive impact of bringing more than 1,000 jobs to Oshkosh to manufacture USPS trucks for the community and economy. Senator Baldwin has been working with local stakeholders to have Oshkosh Corporation bring more than 1,000 jobs to Wisconsin and not South Carolina, where they are currently slated to go.

WHAT: Senator Tammy Baldwin, union reps and local Oshkosh residents to discuss the positive impact of gaining more than 1,000 manufacturing jobs.

WHO: Tammy Baldwin, US Senator

Bob Lynk, President of UAW Local 578

Timothy Jacobson, Chief Steward of UAW Local 578

WHEN: TOMORROW, February 10, 11:15 am CT

WHERE: Register here.