MADISON, Wis. — Tim Michels has staked out the most radical positions on every issue. Whether it's abortion, free and fair elections, or public education, Tim Michels has proven that he is wrong for Wisconsin.

After months of avoiding tough questions, Friday's debate will be one of the few opportunities for him to explain his radical views and answer the important questions in this race. As much as Michels would like to hide, Wisconsinites deserve to hear why he has been unwavering on these extreme and dangerous positions..

Ahead of the debate, Democrats will highlight Michels' most radical positions, the clear choice voters have in this election, and why Gov. Evers is the best choice to lead our state.

WHO:

Lieutenant Governor Nominee Representative Sara Rodriguez
Former Dane County Sheriff David Mahoney
Henry Pahlow, Chair Wisconsin High School Democrats

WHAT: Democratic leaders highlight Michels' radical positions ahead of gubernatorial debate.
