[Appleton, WI] - "Tonight President Biden addressed the nation and tried to have it both ways. In one breath he asked for unity from all Americans, and in the next, he vilified half the nation as dangerous extremists.

Through his words and actions in his first two years in office, President Biden has been more like the "great divider" than the "great uniter" he promised to be. In November, Wisconsinites will reject his failed leadership and return Republicans to power in Washington and Madison," said RPW Communications Director Chad Doran.
