[Madison, WI] – Following the announcement of Senator Johnson's re-election campaign, the Republican Party of Wisconsin released the following statement from Chairman Paul Farrow:

“Grassroots Republicans are enthusiastically backing Senator Johnson's bid for re-election and are committed to doing the hard work to make it happen. Since taking office, he has fought business as usual in Washington and his courage to stand up for what's right has served Wisconsin well. America needs a check on the failed policies of the Biden administration and Wisconsin will make sure that happens by sending Ron Johnson's independent leadership back to Washington.”
