MADISON, Wis.—July 27, 2022—The Green Bay Packers' Operation Fan Mail program, sponsored by WPS Health Solutions, will host a military service member or veteran and their guests at each 2022 season home game. Honorees each receive four tickets to the game and are recognized on the field during pregame activities. Those saluted are selected from nominations submitted by their friends and family.

Nominations for yourself or others can be submitted at any time during the year at operationfanmail.com. The short nomination essays, 500 words or less, also can be mailed to Operation Fan Mail, P.O. Box 10628, Green Bay, WI, 54307-0628.

“WPS Health Solutions is proud to be the long-term partner with the Packers on the Operation Fan Mail program,” Megan Willauer, WPS Director of Events and Strategic Partnerships, said. “Through our WPS Military and Veterans Health division, WPS provides benefits administration for millions of active-duty military personnel, veterans, and their families. We also support a variety of veterans groups in the communities where we do business.”

The program, which debuted in 2007, is designed to honor families with a member who is on active duty or who is a veteran. A total of 147 individuals, families, or groups have been recognized through Operation Fan Mail since it began. Those selected for Operation Fan Mail also receive social media recognition and a $150 Packers Pro Shop gift card.
