Acuity Health: Challenge to benefit neonatal intensive care

Posted on Tuesday, May 23, 2023

>> WisPolitics is now on the State Affairs network. Get custom keyword notifications, bill tracking and all WisPolitics content. Get the app or access via desktop.

The 2023 Acuity Health Challenge will be held Saturday, July 15, with proceeds supporting the Neonatal Intensive Care Unit (NICU) at the Family Birth Center of Aurora Medical Center-Sheboygan County. The Challenge features a 2-mile or 5K run/walk, with donation and virtual race alternatives.

"The Acuity Health Challenge is a fun, family-friendly way that people of all ages can help support NICU services in Sheboygan County," said Melissa Winter, Acuity President.

The Challenge marks its 11th year in 2023. The course is on Acuity's campus at 2800 South Taylor Drive in Sheboygan, and parking will be available. The event begins at 8:00 a.m., and age group awards will be presented to winners in each category from 14 and under to 65 and older. The event also features a Vendor Expo, located at the start/finish line, as well as a performance by the Sheboygan South High School Drumline.

The early entry fee for the Acuity Health Challenge is only $20 until June 25, then $30 through July 13. Same-day registration is available for $35. To learn more or register for the Challenge, visit acuity.com/about/acuity-events/acuity-health-challenge or facebook.com/AcuityHealthChallenge.

Acuity Insurance, headquartered in Sheboygan, Wisconsin, insures over 130,000 businesses, including 300,000 commercial vehicles, and nearly a half million homes and private passenger autos across 31 states. Rated A+ by AM Best and S&P, Acuity employs nearly 1,600 people.