Today Planned Parenthood of Wisconsin announced they will be resuming abortion services in Wisconsin. This is following a Dane County Circuit Court ruling that Wisconsin Statute 940.04 applies to feticide and does not prohibit consensual medical abortions. Dr. Amy Domeyer- Klenske on behalf of the American College of Obstetricians and Gynecologists - Wisconsin

Section made the following statement:

“For over a year people in Wisconsin have not had access to abortion care. Today’s announcement is a step forward to restore access to essential health care. We must continue to work toward ensuring that all people no matter their zip code have access to comprehensive reproductive rights in Wisconsin.”
