MADISON, Wis. — Today, End Citizens United (ECU) / Let America Vote (LAV) announced their support for Tammy Baldwin's U.S. Senate reelection campaign.

With more than four million members nationwide, ECU / LAV is committed to upholding our democracy by fighting corrupt Big Money in politics and extremist attempts to block access to the ballot box.

"Senator Baldwin has spent her career fighting against a corrupt system that favors the wealthy elite over hardworking Wisconsin families," said ECU / LAV President Tiffany Muller. "She's at the forefront of efforts to root out corruption and make our government accountable to the people. Her advocacy on these issues is building momentum for meaningful change that will allow Congress to tackle the issues important to Wisconsin families, like lowering the cost of prescription drugs or making an economy that works for all of us. We're proud to endorse her and we look forward to helping her win."

"I'm committed to making sure Wisconsin families, not just the big corporations and ultra-wealthy, have someone working for them," said Tammy Baldwin. "Thank you to Let America Vote / End Citizens United for standing alongside me in the fight to put people first and special interests where they belong."

Tammy Baldwin has served Wisconsin in the Senate since 2012. She has worked with Republicans and Democrats to take on the biggest fights and win, passing legislation to promote Made in America manufacturing, lower the price of prescription drugs like insulin, and expand health care for veterans. She is the author of the Women's Health Protection Act which guarantees equal access to abortion everywhere in the United States.
