Today, the Biden-Harris 2024 reelection campaign announced the formation of its National Advisory Board, which will be comprised of 50 leading voices in the Democratic Party who will take a leadership role in helping deliver President Biden and Vice President Harris' message and engage voters across the country. Members of the Advisory Board voiced their support and excitement for Team Biden-Harris HERE.

Speaker Emerita Nancy Pelosi will serve as chairperson of the Advisory Board. The entire Board will help the campaign's efforts to build on and expand the winning coalition that sent President Biden to the White House in 2020.

Board members will participate in regular media interviews, assist with fundraising efforts and events, leverage their networks and platforms to amplify the campaign's message to voters, and engage directly with voters through grassroots efforts and events in key battleground states. This initial group represents a cross section of leaders in the Party who reflect the Biden coalition's diversity across many facets, with more members likely to come on board as the campaign builds and grows.

"The stakes of this election couldn't be higher," said President Joe Biden. "Our freedom and democracy are on the line. I'm grateful to this group of diverse and dynamic leaders who will help us win the battle for the soul of America and finish the job for the American people.”
