One year after the Supreme Court overturned Roe v Wade, Derrick Van Orden has continued his assault on reproductive freedoms, despite an overwhelming 80% of Americans who oppose a national abortion ban. To highlight just how out of step Van Orden is with the voters he represents, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee this week announced new, early efforts to hold Van Orden accountable for his anti-abortion crusade.

The campaign in Wisconsin includes:

- A new microsite, expanding upon an investment from last year that outlines Van Orden's dangerous attacks on access to reproductive health care
- Three new digital ads, backed by four-figure buys, that will run against Van Orden and other vulnerable House Republicans

The DCCC is making the stakes of this election crystal clear in Wisconsin. With this campaign and others throughout the cycle, the DCCC will continue to highlight the extreme anti-abortion positions that Van Orden has staked out.

To that end, the DCCC is distributing a fact sheet highlighting Van Orden's dangerous positions on stripping away reproductive freedoms HERE.

DCCC spokesperson Viet Shelton:
"Derrick Van Orden, who is endorsed by the fervently anti-choice SBA List, will stop at nothing to ban abortion nationwide. In the earliest weeks of the MAGA majority, he voted to punish doctors for providing reproductive care – and has been caught attempting to scrub his anti-choice agenda from Wisconsinites. Van Orden cannot be trusted to defend Wisconsin womens' fundamental rights and freedoms and, as a result, will be voted out of office in 2024."

Earlier this week, the DCCC released a memo detailing why abortion remains a key electoral issue for 2024, which can be found HERE.
