Today, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee launched a four-figure digital campaign targeting vulnerable House Republicans, including Bryan Steil and Derrick Van Orden, who voted to shield George Santos in Congress.

"...their actions also may be construed as a tacit endorsement of Mr. Santos's remaining in Congress as he faces ethical and legal inquiries."

This campaign will be live through Memorial Day when Steil and Van Orden will be home in their districts.

Over the next 17 months, the Democratic Congressional Campaign Committee will continue to hold Bryan Steil and Derrick Van Orden accountable to ensure Wisconsinites know Steil and Van Orden's empty rhetoric at home does not match their actions on Capitol Hill.

DCCC spokesperson Viet Shelton:

"Bryan Steil and Derrick Van Orden have proven they are too weak to buck party leadership and – instead of expelling serial grifter and indicted criminal George Santos from Congress – voted to protect him. Wisconsinites deserve better than hypocritical representatives who put party over people and the DCCC will continue to hold Steil and Van Orden accountable."
