Madison, Wis. – The Department of Administration Secretary Kathy Blumenfeld has announced the appointment of Diana Maas as Assistant Deputy Secretary for DOA. Maas previously served as legislative liaison with the Department of Transportation, and most recently was a government affairs coordinator for State Farm. She will begin her new post on December 18.

“Ensuring we meet our mission of delivering effective and efficient services at the best value to government agencies and the public, means having the right people, at the right place, and the right time,” said Secretary Kathy Blumenfeld. “As we continue to modernize our state workplace and workforce, Diana will be a trusted partner in building the future of DOA, and I’m excited to welcome her aboard.”

Diana Maas added that “I am honored to join the team at the Wisconsin Department of Administration and look forward to serving the state in this role.”
